

Telescopic dipper

Highly controlled powerful 890mm “straight” movement

- As the boom and dipper movement is rotating around movements, this could in some application be limiting the operations
- The track is extremely powerful and depending on seabed conditions (damage to tools and assets), which is not ideal to use as tool progress where you need control of the movement
- By applying the telescopic dipper you are able to perform a straight movement of the tool in all directions

